BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF ATTRACTION

The Laura Secord Homestead offers an accurate restoration of the house in which the Secord family lived from 1803 to 1835. Knowledgeable staff, in period costume, assist students in exploring the story of this remarkable Canadian heroine as well as the intriguing story of Ontario's past. Students explore the nature of heroism and the responsibilities of citizenship. Located at 29 Queenston Street

DESCRIPTION OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Two programmes, Laura's Journey and Laura Secord's Life & Times, provide a tour through the house, allowing students to explore how 19th century life differs from life in the modern world. Joint programming with nearby Mackenzie Printery & Newspaper Museum can also be arranged to maximize student experience with several aspects of early Canadian history.

1 Teacher or supervisor per 10 students.
