DESCRIPTION OF EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Teaching Shakespeare School

The Stratford Shakespeare Festival's flagship education program is designed to show teachers how to approach the works of Shakespeare not as literature but as theatre - the way Shakespeare himself intended.

Pre-Show Presentations

Before student and senior matinée performances, members of the cast lead your students through games and activities to prepare them for the show.

Post-Show Chats

Meet members of the company after the show! Informal Q&A sessions with actors and other artists last half an hour following the performance.

Workshops

Choose from song and dance, stage combat or a workshop exploring the play your students are attending.
