

Special ticket packages on sale for 100th Grey Cup Championship

TORONTO (October 17, 2012) – A special block of tickets is now available for the sold-out Grey Cup game in Toronto. Although the game has been sold out for months, these new ticket-hotel packages are available through Tourism Toronto for visitors who want to catch the game and make it a weekend in Toronto.

The 100th edition of the Grey Cup Championship returns to Rogers Centre at 6:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 25, 2012. The special packages include choice of tickets in the Platinum, Gold, Silver and Bronze levels. Packages start from $518 (based on double occupancy) and include a 2-night stay at one of over 20 Toronto hotels as well as two tickets to the 100th Grey Cup Championship game.

The 100th Grey Cup Championship game will be the culmination of an 11-day festival running from November 15-25, 2012. From parties and galas to a family fun zone, the 100th Grey Cup Festival will offer something to fans of all ages that make the trek to Toronto for the game 100 years in the making!

While in Toronto sports fans can experience the Hockey Hall of Fame and wrap their arms around the Stanley Cup and see a special display honouring the 40th anniversary of the Canada-Soviet Summit Series. Also that weekend fans can experience the hands-on exploration of the Science of Sport in a special exhibition at the Ontario Science Centre.

For more information or to purchase one of these limited ticket packages visit Tourism Toronto's website at www.seetorontonow.com or call 1-800-499-2514.
