Global Travel Show hits Maple Leaf Gardens this weekend

Toronto, ON - EXPLORATIONS, a travel consumer show for travelers gay or straight, will be held at Maple Leaf Gardens and is part of the International Gay and Lesbian Travel Association's (IGLTA) 26th annual conference to be hosted in Toronto from May 7-9. Travelers looking for the next trend in travel and wanting to learn about more than 100 exciting international destinations should attend this travel show in the Village.

Attendees of EXPLORATIONS will also find a collaborative Community Inspiration Section offering an opportunity to meet face to face with iconic Church Wellesley Village businesses and organizations to find out what's happening in the queer heart of the city this summer. Following the travel consumer show the Church Wellesley Village will welcome all attendees to celebrate and explore the open doors of the village businesses for the remainder of the evening.

WHAT: EXPLORATIONS, IGLTA's travel consumer show

WHEN: Friday, May 8, 2009, 6-10 p.m.

WHERE: Maple Leaf Gardens, Church street entrance

Note: Cameras are welcome throughout the showroom floor.
